

6516208308.txt

I think that XM Radio should continue to have local weather and traffic information. This is very important to the trucking industry as the drivers are aware of problems ahead. This is the best thing that has ever come to the drivers of America. This is also important for the driving public to have the weather and traffic information.